

HAMDEN POLICE DEPARTMENT CITIZEN'S POLICE ACADEMY

Program Statement:

The Hamden Police Department is proud to announce the next session of our Citizens' Police Academy for the Spring of 2024. The purpose is to provide local residents, college students, businesses and property owners as well as potential police officer recruits with information as it relates to the function and activities of the Hamden Police Department. It's our hope that this program will increase police and public awareness and build community rapport through this educational endeavor. In return, the Hamden Police Department will surely benefit by increasing awareness regarding the concerns of the community through their interaction and input during this exciting and intense program.
